Put these dates in your diary now
15th to 17th October

Letterheads is your annual opportunity to learn from people prepared to share their skills and expertise and this year the Letterheads event being staged in Wellington, is no exception. Organised by award winning apprentice Nicole Swain, you can be assured of a memorable experience with the announcement of Letterhead's special guest participant, Daniel Reeve. (www.danielreeve.co.nz)

As always apprentices will be well looked after, they pay a discounted registration fee so all you have to do is book their flights and accommodation and we'll do the rest. Or better still, why don't you come to Wellington with them!
